

September 2017

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your valuable support of The Rainbow Centre. As a Rainbow Centre supporter we currently hold your name, email address, postal address and contact telephone numbers on our files. The purpose of us holding this information is to enable us to keep communicating with you not only by sending you these newsletters but also to keep you up to date on forthcoming events.

If you are happy for us to continue to hold the information above we would kindly ask for you to complete, sign and return the confirmation below via email or post to the addresses listed (if you have received this letter electronically you can follow the link given and provide authorisation that way). I would confirm that The Rainbow Centre will NOT share any of your information with any third party without having first sought your express consent.
